Confession of Sin

Nehemiah 1; Matthew 5; 1 John 1

Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and awe-inspiring God, our Heavenly Father who keeps His gracious covenant with those who love Him and keep His commands, let Your eyes be open and Your ears be attentive to hear our prayer of confession and repentance. We have not kept the commands You gave to Moses. Jesus told us that unless our righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, we will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Lord, let your ear be attentive to our plea for forgiveness. Forgive us on the basis of Jesus' blood of atonement, and then enable us by Your grace to obey You from our hearts, walking as Jesus walked. In Jesus Name we pray. Amen

Assurance of Grace

Psalms 103:11-13

Pastor: He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

People: For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him.

Pastor: As far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

People: As a father shows compassion to his children, so, the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.

Scripture Reading

Mark 6:1-6

Jesus went away from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. ² And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? What is the wisdom given to him? How are such mighty works done by his hands? ³ Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?"

And they took offense at him. ⁴ And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household." ⁵ And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶ And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went about among the villages teaching.
